Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Max and Bertha Grubl began the celebration of life together as husband and wife in Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Eight; and,

WHEREAS, Their marriage has spanned more than half a century of service and devotion to their family, friends, and neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, Through horse buggy days to the first car, to men walking on the moon to the Space Shuttle, from the first telephone to the computer age, they have seen it all—together; and,

WHEREAS, On this special occasion of great joy and celebration, friends and loved ones will gather to honor Max and Bertha; and,

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 21, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
